ORDER

Defendant Anthony George Young moves the Court for a recommendation for re-designation to a Bureau of Prisons facility closer to his home (Doc. No. 181). While this Court at sentencing routinely makes a recommendation to the Bureau of Prisons for a place of initial designation, this Court has never made a post-sentencing recommendation for a place of re-designation. The Court lacks the knowledge and ability to assess the complex issues arising from providing for housing and medical services to the approximately 220,000 inmates currently in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons. These issues are best left to the administrative authorities within the Bureau of Prisons. Thus the motion for a recommendation for re-designation is DENIED.
